

Case Study: Mid-Tier Hospital AI System

Context

A regional mid-tier hospital network (3 hospitals, ~600 beds total) is experiencing increasing emergency department (ED) congestion, delayed diagnoses, and clinician burnout.

Leadership is exploring AI to improve patient triage and diagnostic support while maintaining regulatory compliance and patient safety.